Goundry's Patent
Consolidated or Compressed Tea
Saves from 40 to 50 per cent to every Tea Consumer

Gives as much strength in five minutes as the same tea, not compressed, will give in five hours.
Is always Genuine.
Cannot be mixed or adulterated.
Requires no weighing or measuring.
Is Sold in a form which makes waste impossible.
Useful when space has to be considered.
Every ¼ lb Tablet is stamped 'Goundry, London.'

Opinions of the Press on Goundry's Tea.

"In its practical aspect it represents a saving of from 40 to 60 per cent to every Tea consumer."—Standard.

"So much could be advanced in favour of Mr Goundry's patent, that Consolidated Tea may be regarded as the tea of the future."—Civil Service Gazette.

"It far excels the finest loose tea the world produces."—British and Foreign Confectioner.

The Daily Telegraph says—"Two pounds of Goundry's Consolidated or Compressed Tea is about equal to the yield of three pounds of loose Tea,...... As to flavour, the process of compression restores that virgin freshness of aroma which is agreeable to all tastes."

GOVERNMENT
Mortgage Bank
Offices 111 CALLE SAN MARTIN

This Bank will be open to the Public on all business days from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

It advances on real estate to be repaid at long dates.

It gives Mortgage Certificates (Cedulas Hipotecarios) for the amount of the loan it advances, which bear an interest equal to that collected by the Bank.

The value of propeaty offered in mortgage shall not be under two thousand patacons, nor the loan be less than 500 fuertes.

No loan can exceed half the value of the property mortgaged.

The Mortgagor shall bind himself to pay an annual sum so long as the mortgage lasts, said sum to represent the interest on the sum lent the amortisation fund and commission to the Bank. This yearly sum shall be paid quarterly or half-yearly.

Series A—Quarterly
Mortgage for 20 years 117 days, 8 per cent interest 2 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series B—Quarterly
Mortgage for 27 years 270 days; 8 per cent interest, 1 per cent amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series C—Half-year y
Mortgage for 20 years 190 days; 8 per cent nterest, 2 per cent amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series D—Half-yearly
Mortage for 28 years 5 days; 8 per cent nterest, 1 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Upon the full payment of the yearly sum stipulated in the Mortgage, both property and Mortgagor shall be freed from all further obligation.

The Mortgagor shall be at liberty to anticipate the payments and to discharge the mortgage, all or in part.

Applications for mortgages must be made in writing, specifying the property offered, accompanied by the title deeds, the receipts of the Contribucion Directa tax, and setting forth that the property is free from all incumbrance or if not the incumbrance that exists thereon, and which is to be paid off by the mortgage. The Secretary of the bank will supply applicants with the forms necessary as also the tables for amortization.

Quarterly mortgagers shall pay from 8th to 15th of each January, April, July and October, and half-yearly mortgagers shall pay between the 8th and 15th of each January and July.

With the amortization fund, mortgage certificates (cedulas) shall be redeemed at par by quarterly and half yearly drawings.

The mortgage Bank pays the interest on the quarterly cedulas or mortgage certificates between the 31st December and 6th January, the 31st March and 6th April, the 30th June and 6th July, the 30th September and 6th October every year, and on the half yearly cedulas from the 31st December to 15th January, and from 30th June to 15th July.

The Mortgage Bank can act between the capitalist and mortgagor, free of charge in the way of realizing the cedulas, and for this purpose will receive deposits without interest, which will receive a preference, and which sums will be deposited in the Provincial Bank

Cedulas are taken in deposit from 1 Cedula of 50 Patacons the lowest amount issued by the Bank) upwards.

THE QUICHUA LANGUAGE.

We are indebted to the Rev Mr Spilsbury for a neat copy of his translation of St. John's Gospel into the Quichua language. We believe it is the first of the kind ever published, and will doubtless attract much attention in Europe:—

This language, formerly spoken by the Incas of Peru, is still the predominant tongue of the Province of Santiago, in this Republic. It is also spoken in the whole of Bolivia and the greater portion of Peru, reaching even as high as the States of Columbia. It is a wonder that it has been preserved as it is in these various districts, considering that it is an unwritten language, and has only been transmitted to us orally. At the conquest, the Jesuit fathers made a careful study of it, but most of their MSS. and printed books are lost. One of the oldest is a vocabulary written by Father Holguin and printed in Lima in the year 1608; and also a small grammar compiled by Fray Domingo de S. Thomas, printed in Valladolid in 1560. A copy of the first of these rare books is in the possession of General Bartholome Mitre, whose valuable library has most kindly been placed at the disposal of the translator of this Gospel of S. John to help him in his work.

As the Quichua has no written alphabet, the greatest difficulty for a translator is to put the oral words on paper. In this translation, the Spanish has been taken as a basis, and the words are written as near as possible as they would be pronounced by a Spaniard.

The Quichua language, by reason of its richness, its force, and above all by reason of the marvellous ease, with which it adapts itself to the infinite changes of thought, has been compared by many writers to the learned languages. It spread with the Inca power, as the unification of language was one of the principal elements in the ideas of Inca Government. Thus it came to be spoken from Quito to Tucuman and Santiago del Estero, and from the Pacific Ocean to the boundaries of Brazil.

The fundamental character of the language is agglutination, so that its grammar differs essentially from that of Greek or Latin origin. Properly speaking, there are no parts of speech, only one kind of word, which, by the aid of suffixes or affixes, is made to express a quality, an action, or the manner of doing.

The preseat translation of St. John's Gospel is the first that has been ever made. The work has been doubly difficult on account of the radical difference between the Greek original and the Quichua into which it is translated. The few words which could not be translated, and have no equivalent at all, have been put in Spanish and italicised.

The Minho's Mails.

London, May 24th.

Four thousand Afghans, who held a strong position near Maizena, have been engaged by a British force from Peshbolak, dislodged after an obstinate resistance, and dispersed in every direction. The British force returned to Peshbolak on Friday last.

Insult having been offered the British Consul at Djedda by the Persian Consul at the place, Lord Granville has made representations on the subject to the Government of the Shah, and the circumstances will be inquired into by an Anglo-Persian Committee, the Persian Consul being meantime suspended.

Our Constantinople correspondent telegraphs the text of the Porte's reply to the collective Note of the Powers on the Montenegro-Albanian question.

Mr Goschen has had an interview with the Emperor of Austria, and is reported to have been generally satisfied with the results of his visit to the Austrian capital. Mr Goschen left Trieste on board her Majesty's despatch vessel Helicon for Constantinople.

At the trial of the political prisoners at St. Petersburg, on Saturday, one of the accused proved that he was in Archangel, under arrest at the time of General Mesentsoff's assassination in St. Petersburg, in which crime he was accused of being implicated.

With regard to the approaching debate upon the Clerical Bill in the German Parliament, the fate of Prince Bismarck, our Berlin correspondent observes, hangs upon a thread. If he detends and carries the bill with Ultramontane aid, the next elections will go against him.

On Saturday morning last the revolutionary band in the province of Castellon was marching in the direction of Chelva. Several armed columns were sent in pursuit.

Satisfactory accounts, our Paris correspondent telegraphs, have been received from the strike districts. The men are reported to be steadily returning to their work, and things are once more assuming their wanted appearance.

A body of cotton-spinners, numbering about 1000 men, set fire to a mill at Barcelona on Friday, after wrecking all the machinery. The flames were extinguished by the police and military, and the ringleaders of the rioters are reported to have been apprehended.

The Victorian Ministry have introduced a bill in the Legislative Assembly for the reform of the Constitution.

Under the presidency of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the festival dinner in aid of the Princess Helena College was held on Saturday evening, at Willis's Rooms.

Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, on Saturday evening last, gave a grand concert, in aid of the funds of the Albert Institute, Windsor, the proceeds of the entertainment being destined to supplement the results of the bazar recently held for the same object.

Yesterday the friends of the Guards' Industrial Home attended service at the Royal Military Chapel, Wellington Barracks, the first performed since the completion of the internal decorations of the edifice. Amongst the congregation were their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, with the Prince Albert Victor and George, the Grand Duke of Hesse and Mr and Mrs Gladstone.

Nearly two thousand bicyclists, representing 118 London and provincial clubs, took part in the annual meeting at Hampton Court on Saturday.

Sir William Harcourt addressed a large meeting of the electors of Derby on Saturday, and, with reference to the taunt that the present Government agreed with the foreign policy of the Opposition, declared that they were as opposed to it as ever, and that their policy was that which they said ought to have been the policy pursued at the time of the Berlin Treaty.

In the stock markets on Saturday the prominent feature was a great fall in American railway securities, on the announcement that the Philadelphia and Reading Company has suspended payment. Canadian and English lines also gave way. As regards foreign bonds, Chilian, French and Hungarian improved, while Argentine and Egyptian Daira Sanieh declined. Consols at 99⅛-¼ for money, and 99⅛-⅜ for the account.

Some time ago one Martin Ott, a wealthy Viennese jeweller, died suddenly and was buried. He was childless, forlorn of near relatives, and intestate at the time of his decease. Shortly after that event several claims to his heritage were set up by persons more or less distantly akin to him, and these would-be heirs, having in concert adopted the theory that he must have made a will disposing of his vast fortune in favour of somebody or other, induced the Imperial home authorities to sanction the exhumation of his body. The corpse was coffined, after the Austrian fashion, in a full-dress suit, and it was presumed that the missing testament would be found in one of Martin Ott's coat pockets, or haply sewn up in the lining of his evening trousers. On the 13th instant the disinterment was effected by sanitary officials of the State, in the presence of the respective claimants to heirship and their legal advisers. Presently great excitement was aroused by the exclamation, 'I feel a piece of paper,' uttered by one of the assistants engaged in searching the dead man's decayed and tattered apparel. Everybody jumped to the conclusion that the missing will has been found; but the paper proved to be a tramcar-ticket, No. 22,871, which the Viennese millionnaire had carried to the grave. No document but this twopenny voucher rewarded the searchers' trouble—and Martin Ott's body, re-soldered up in its metal casing, was definitely consigned to dust.

Accompanied by Princess Beatrice, Princess Victoria and Princess Elizabeth of Hesse, Her Majesty the Queen arrived at Balmoral Castle, from Windsor, on Saturday afternoon. Viscount Bridport, Gen. Sir Henry Ponsonby, Mr. Sahl and Dr. Marshall were in attendance upon Her Majesty. At Ferryhill Junction a very large concourse of people had assembled, including the sheriffs of the county, Lord Provost Jamieson and the magistrates of Aberdeen, as Her Majesty had intimated her intention of personally presenting the Albert Medal to George Oatley, coastguardsman, for his gallantry in saving the crew of the Swedish vessel Auguste, on the 16th of last February. Her Majesty and Princess Beatrice left the saloon, and were conducted to a small platform which had been erected. General Sir Henry Ponsonby presented Captain Best, R.N., to the Queen, and the captain introduced Oatley, who is one of his men in the Coastguard Division. Her Majesty attached the medal to Oatley's left breast, and remarked that she had much pleasure in decorating him with it for his gallant conduct in saving life. Sir William Wiseman and the other officers of Her Majesty's training-ship Clyde with a number of the men of that vessel and of the Coastguard in the district, formed a guard of honour and presented arms when the train arrived and when it departed.

On Saturday the following letter from the Lord Lieutenant to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, was read at the meeting of the Mansion House Committee:—"8, Grosvenor-square, London, May 20—My Lord—I am convinced, from all I hear, and all I read, that there is much need for private charity in Ireland. I am satisfied that the money entrusted both to the Duchess of Marlborough's Committee and to the Mansion House Committee, has been well administred, and that fewer mistakes have been made than could have been reasonably expected in so vast and complicated a task. I shall, therefore, have much pleasure in sending a subscription of £500 towards your fund, with an earnest hope that a plentiful harvest may, before many months are over, materially mitigate the distress which is so inexpressibly painful to contemplate.—I remain, my Lord, yours faithfully, Cowper."

Paris, Sunday night.—At yesterday's sitting of the Chamber, M. Paul de Cassagnac gave notice of an intrepellation on the alleged misconduct of the Prefect of the Gers, in connection with the late election in that department. The hearing was fixed for three weeks hence. The President, M. Gambetta, announced that he had received a request for authorisation to proceed against the Duc de Padoue. This demand, which has been expected for some days, rests on the fact of the Duc de Padoue having voted in two separate places, in infringement of the law, which gives but one vote to each person, even though he possess property in different departments. The fine and punishment for this offence are severe, and the case will give rise to much excitement, affecting as it does one of the leading members of the Bonapartist party, who has thus rendered himself liable to imprisonment. No remarks were made on the subject in the Chamber, as the papers are to be printed and issued to the members. The discussion of the Tariff Bill was proceeded with, and several minor matters were disposed of.

Immense crowds flocked to the French Derby by express trains every ten minutes for two hours, organised by the Northern Railway with its usual admirable punctuality. The morning being lowering there were fewer ladies than are generally seen, and summer toilettes were rare. The Duc d'Aumale and the Duc de Nemours did the honours of the Central Pavillion, where were congregated many members of the Orleanist family and their friends. The opening race, the Prix Dangu, was exciting. Count Lagrange's Courtois and M. Andrea's Moule ran abreast all the way, and many thought there was a dead heat.

The field for the Derby was small but a better lot has been rarely seen on the Chantilly turf. Beauminet, the favourite all along, is mentioned on the card as belonging to the Chamant stables, the name of his owner not being given, as in the other cases. This is because the proprietor, M. Lefevre, is, for reasons unnecessary to speak of, no longer a member of the Jockey Club. His stable companion, the filly Versigny, was scratched this morning, she having cast a shoe and pricked her foot. She has, however, gone to England to run for the Oaks. Beauminet is a light bay with a broadish white stripe down a handsome head. He has a good deal of white about his feet. When led out, there was a perceptible hitch in the motion of his left leg. But his form in galloping is splendid. His rivals, Louis d'Or, Poulet, and Milan, Viveur, Pacific, and Lion, are all fine animals. The start is not now seen from the Grand Stand. It takes place behind in the alley towards the railway station, and the horses run a quarter of a mile before the public see them. When they came in sight Viveur was making the running, but the lot kept well together throughout, Louis d'Or, Milan, and Poulet alternately having a small advantage. The decisive struggle took place between the favourite, Beauminet, and an outsider, Lion. The former won not by a head, nor half a head, but barely by a nose. Poulet was placed third. Archer rode the winner; Rolf, Lion; and Dodge, Poulet.

Chantilly, May 23d.

The following are the results of to-day's racing:—

Prix de Dangu.—Courtois, 1; Mourle, 2.

Prix de l'Oise.—Vaillance, 1; Josephine, 2.

Prix de Gouvieux (Handicap).—La Frlieuse, 1; Gastonuette, 2.

Prix du Jockey Club (the French Derby).—Beauminet, 1; Le Lion, 2. Won by a short head.

Prix des Etangs.—La Scala, 1; Avermes, 2.

Madrid, Sunday.—Very serious disturbances have taken place in Barcelona. 2,000 workmen, excited by revolutionary and Socialist intrigues, attacked, pillaged, and attempted to burn one large cloth factory, and were dispersed by the troops and mounted gendarmes, after the civil authorities had in vain tried to reason with them. Military precautions were taken to prevent the riot spreading to the suburbs, and the large operative population of Barcelona. Much alarm prevailed for 24 hours. The Madrid Government sent reinforcements, and ordered General Prendergast to return to his command. Forty-three of the rioters were arrested. Every association and union of operatives was closed by the authorities, who asked for more troops. The Conservatives are delighted at this agitation just when the dynastic Liberals are uniting against the Canovas Cabinet.

THE FIGHTING IN AFGHANISTAN.

Simla, May 22nd.—A British force from Peshbolak has engaged 4,000 Afghans near Maizena. The enemy who held a strong position, were dislodged after an obstinate resistance, and were pursued as far Sheikh Maidan, dispersing in every direction. The Afghans lost upwards of 100 killed, while the loss on the British side was two officers wounded, two men of the 14th Regiment killed, and two men wounded. The British force returned to Peshbolak yesterday.

Besud, or Besoot, the locality mentioned in Friday's telegram from Afghanistan, is directly opposite the town of Jellalabad on the left band of the Cabul river, so close is it to Jellalabad it might be called 'the Surrey side' in reference to that place. The part of the Jellalabad Valley on the north side of the Cabul river is divided into two districts, Kamah being on the east, and Besoot on the west. They are separated by the Kunar River, which flows into the Cabul river about a couple of miles below Jellalabad. The Safis, who seem to have been the attacking party, most probably came down by the Kunar, for their district is in the valley of that name. In January of last year, when Seyed Mahmud Khan, Padshah of Kunar, came on a visit to General Sir Sam. Browne's camp at Jellalabad, he had to fight his way through the Safis, and some lives were lost, as he came down the Kunar Valley. The regular road from the Kunar Valley into the Jellalabad Valley passes a low range of bare stony hills, by a pass called the Paikob Tunga, which is wild and picturesque from its masses of rock. One rock being like a paikob, or rice pounding mallet, gives the name of the tunga or pass. This is at its crest, where there are the remains of an old fort, and here, in all probability, our troops had been stationed, in concealed and commanding positions, to await the coming of the Safis. The name of the leader of this attack is given as Mullah Khalid. The last part of the name ought to be Khalil, derived from 'Al Khalil,' a title by which Abraham is yet known in the East as 'the Friend of God.' Mullah Khalil is well known on the left bank of the Cabul river. He keeps the Momunds of that region in an excited state, and has led them into Kamah on raids before this, and from his name being given in connection with the event we may be pretty sure that there were Momunds as well as Safis in this last attack.

The telegrams of Saturday morning announce a still more serious attack near Jellalabad. This consisted of four thousand men, led also by a Mullah. Maizena is south-west of Jellalabad, in the Shinwari country, towards Pesh Bolak. Most probably Mullah Khalil and Mullah Fekin, the leader of the gathering of Shinwa is, although in opposite directions, are acting in concert; and they seem to have collected large forces, but they serve no purpose against the large number of troops we have now in the country. The three thousand men collecting in the Logar valley are nearer to Cabul, and will be easily dispersed by the troops, there or at Ghuznee.

Constantinople, May 21.—The Persian Consul at Djedda having insulted the British Consul at that place, Earl Granville instructed Sir Henry Layard to inform Moshin Khan, the Persian Minister at this Court, that the British Government had made representations on the subject to the Government of the Shah, and that consequently the Persian Consul at Djedda had been suspended, pending an inquiry into the circumstances by an Anglo-Persian committee.

THE ENGLISH SHEEP-ROT.

The Effect upon Prices.

The loss of so many sheep cannot fail to have an effect upon the price of mutton, but it does not come within our province to pursue this part of the subject, beyodd mentioning that the annual consumption in this country of home-grown sheep and lambs is fully 12,000,000, and that this was supplemented last year by the importation of 944,869 live animals (the average of the past three years has been 903,636); it will thus be seen how largely the Foreign supply may have to be augmented to fill the place of the estimated loss of five and a quarter millions of sheep and lambs.

It would be interesting to trace the effect of each of the more recent outbreaks of the epidemic upon the supply and prices of wool, but the information at our disposal does not permit us to deal with those of 1830, and 1860, for it was not until 1867 that official returns of the number of our flocks were made. But when we come to 1869 it is possible to trace the effect of the rot which occurred then.

We are not aware that any estimate of the losses during the epidemic of 1869 exists, but the return of the following year shows a deficiency of 1¼ millions, about one-third of the decrease being in lambs, and a further decline in the numbers is shown by the return for 1871, which probably arose from the drought of the previous year, and also from a poor lambing season. Whatever may have caused the decrease, it was followed by a very sharp advance in prices, and this, in turn, was succeeded by a corresponding decline as the flocks increased from year to year. Since 1874 there has been an almost continuous decline in the numbers, but at the same time, there has been a restricted consumption. The matter becomes clearer as we approach the present epidemic, the effect of which has been two-fold. In the first instance, the loss of sheep increased the supply of wool, for that which would, in the natural order of things, have been available in June in the form of fleeces, has been forced upon the market as skin wool, and consumed thereby, no doubt, checking an advance in value greater than that which has occurred; the subsequent effect will be felt during the present year, for the deficiency in the number of fleeces will be ascertained at clip time; the excellent crop of lambs of which we have spoke will mitigate the more distant effect of the losses, but it cannot do so to any great extent until the summer of next year, and it will require at least another favourable lambing season to restore the production to its average volume.

In the meantime, the position appears to be a serious one, for at the moment when there is a considerable expansion in the consumption of this country, we have a serious decrease in the production, and to this must be added the increased demand for the article which has sprung up from the United States, which market has taken 12¼ million pounds during the past six months, against an annual average of the last ten years, of two millions; the significance of this movement will be appreciated when we state that the estimated weight of the clip in this countay last year was 153¼ million of pounds, and the effect of this extraneous demand will probably be all the more marked because it has been principally for the demi-lustre and down descriptions, the supply of which is chiefly affected by the rot.

MERCANTILE BANK OF THE RIVER PLATE.

Mr Reeves—I should like to ask some questions connected with the Report. I have listened with great interest to the remarks you have made, but I assume, as the re-construction is not before us now, that that subject is not to be discussed. That will be discussed when the Committee, the voluntary Committee and the Board presented their report. Now, it seems to me that our property consists to a very large extent of shares in other Companies, the major portion of our property consists of shares and debentures of other Companies. It is proposed to distribute among the shareholders the shares and debentures you hold in the Montevideo Water Works? If not, perhaps you will kindly give a reason for not doing so. I presume, as it is an English Company, that there is a regular report issued, which would enable the shareholders to see who is managing it, and we should have that information in our hands. If you consider it in the interests of the Bank that the shares and debentures of the Montevideo Water Works Company should be retained in your hands, then I think that some steps should be taken for obtaining copies of the report of that Company, and to place it in the hands of the shareholders of the Bank, that they may know what is going on. As it is at present, I suppose when meetings are called, the Directors, as representing the shareholders of this Bank, attend those meetings, and, without consulting the shareholders of the Bank, take such part in the proceedings of the Montevideo Water Works Company as they think beneficial to this Company. That may be very well, and no doubt right, but I think the shareholders of the Bank are entitled to know something more about those proceedings. (Hear, hear.) Then, assuming that we eliminate those debentures and shares from our property, it appears that we have only about £200,000 in other properties, and, as a gentleman has pointed out to me, we have £391,000 loans and creditors in current account. Then, what you have to do at present is to realize those properties, and settle the claims against the Bank. It seems to me that a better plan would be to put that in the hands of some agency on commission, without going to the labour of forming a new bank, but that will be discussed when the matter comes before us. I think that the shares and debentures of the Montevideo Water Works Company should be divided among us (that is my view), and also that we should have more information as to that Company.

Mr Conveney: Who is the chief creditor? I cannot think that those gentlemen who hold £391,000 would let us distribute the Shares and Debentures of the Water Works Company. Are not our Debentures held as security? Every item of our property is held as security I should think. (No, no). As to cancelling Mr Wanklyn's 6,000 shares and still taking the money for them, if we cancel his shares we have no business to take the money unless you made that a special arrangement. (A voice: He has not paid his calls.) You cannot forfeit a man's shares and make him pay too.

The Solicitor—Yes, we can.

The Chairman—We cannot in this instance, because he is dead. Else, as our Solicitor says, we could forfeit his shares and get his money also.

Mr Coveney—Well, who have the £391,000? Have we got an assurance that they will not take those debentures and sell them at a depreciation? Because that is very important. They are not ours, you may depend upon it, and we may find the holders selling them at a great sacrifice.

The Solicitor—Will you please address the Chair; we cannot hear what you are saying.

Mr Coveney—We were told we should get about £10 a share, but it does not look like it.

Mr Morrison—It seems to me that what you said about forming a new Company is the preferable course, as the ultimate interests of the Shareholders, and the policy of nursing the assets is by far more preferable than the suggestion made by some gentleman to transfer them to an agency. I think if we can by any possibility reconstruct this bank, and start it as a going concern, the results obtained by the new concern, or rather by the old one, reconstructed, in getting our assets realized, would be immensely more favorable than by any other means which might be taken. As to the Montevideo Water Works Company, I see you state in the Report that the profit and loss account for the year shows a surplus of £22,000. I take it that that £22,000 is after the deduction of all expenses, and is primarily applicable to the interest on the debentures, and, secondly, to interest upon the shares. The interest on the debentures, I presume, is more than covered by that amount, and probably there will be a surplus for the ordinary shareholders. For my own part, I am not largely interested in the bank, but I have some friends who unfortunately are, and in whom I take a deep interest. I should, therefore, advocate the reconstruction of the company, and I think on the principles laid down by you, or suggested by you, that a certain amount of capital should be credited to the old shareholders. I think that is a fair way of dealing with the old shareholders, and I have no doubt that the result in the future will be very much more favorable than by any other means.

Mr. Coveney—I was a shareholder in the London and River Plate Bank The shares were £40 paid with £60 liability. They went down on the Stock Exchange, and afterwards the capital was altered, and now the shares are at a premium and are paying seven per cent. For two years they did not pay anything at at all—(spoke, spoke)—and if you can—(time, time.)

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We are authorized to state that on the afternooon of Wednesday, June 30th, Her Majesty's Naval, Officer commanding the squadron will send a vessel of war to Montevideo to meet the Pacific mail to and from Europe.

The first news in town yesterday morning was peace, before 8 o'clock, Mr Edward Madero was seen driving down Calle Florida, and he shouted out to a friend who was passing Hope. Later on it was known that Mr Madero with Dr Felix Frias and Vice Governor Moreno had started on a Peace Mission to Belgrano, the prayers and aspiration of 200,000 people accompanied these heroic Peace Commissioner, and there was an immense gathering of ladies at all churches who attended at the Novena for Peace.

Over fifty people called at our office yesterday to obtain passes to leave the town. We sent them to Mr Wilson, who however, informs us that they must go to their respective Legations, and there apply for certificates of nationality, upon which the passes are given, we can conceive nothing more difficult than for a poor man to obtain such a pass, and we do hope, the Minister will adopt some plan to help the poor people to get out of town.

The taking of the steamer Galileo by the Correntino Government, appears to be confirmed, and there was more news current about this steamer which we do no not publish, but affairs in Entre Rios are said to be in a dreadful state, and the death of Aquiles Gonzalez is fully confirmed. The rebels it appears took possession of the Railway station, and took off all the arms in Concordia,

Application for the relief of a British subject who had eaten nothing for 24 hours was made to us yesterday, As there is a Committee now named, we trust, they will look the matter up.

Very few of the Flores people came to town yesterday. We saw the Consuls man, who passed the lines all right, and he reports numbers of troops on the road—but it would seem that the Flores residents were not allowed to pass—Mr Power, who resides in Almagro, was unable to get in.

Yesterday, we saw one or two friends from the camp, and we caution our readers against believing the many alarming rumours current about the state of things in the camp, as our friends, who have come in state, there is much exaggeration.

We hold for our next a pleasant communication from the Tribe, all about a fete on board.

Yesterday morning there was a sharp change in the weather, rain, rain. All the artillery stuck fast in the mud—the roads in the suburbs in a dreadful state, and it would be a good job if the wet weather continued.

The English gunboat Elk left her moorings on Friday; they say she went outside to bring in provisions to the British Hospital.

General Mitre returned from Belgrano at half-past 11 the night before last, and then had a long conference with the Governor and Dr. Moreno which lasted till half-past 1 in the morning, when he retired to his residence there were many people awaiting him in order to learn the news, and he told them it was neither peace nor war, so that they might sleep comfortably for the present.

The Provincial Bank has given as donation to the Damas de Socorro—

6 barrels wine
6 do suger
200 blankets
200 shirts
200 drawers
200 sheets
200 pillow cases
50 pair stockings
300 towels.

The subscriptions and donations throughout the town are so numerous that they would require a special journal to publish the daily list.

Yesterday morning the first news in town was firing in the direction of the Plaza Once; two cannon shots were distinctly heard, and soon the news spread that the Station Master at the Plaza Once was killed by a spent ball. It seems that whilst he was taking coffee at the confiteria skirmishing began, and as it was his duty to be on guard about the engine &c. he ran out to see what was going on. Hardly had he reached the track, and where the battery is, when a ball struck him in the breast killing him instantaneously. Deceased was much esteemed by all; his name was Acosta, and we may add him to the long list of victims that this terrible war demands.

We were mistaken in stating that Mr. Bowring had ceased to be a member of the Red Cross International Association. It appears that a great many abuses had taken place, persons assuming the badge who had no permission: some entered who were liable to military service, whilst others used the badge so as to act as spies. It had, therefore, become necessary to reorganize the association: only those bringing the best testimonials from two well-known gentlemen can now join. Amongst the new entries figure Dr. Coulbourne and Professor Kyle, who have already done very good and active work in this noble cause, Mr. Bowring, and others whose names we have not yet been able to ascertain.

The following short memorandum is all we received from Montevideo yesterday—

"Montevideo, June 23rd.

"The Post Office has addressed the 'Camara Sindical de la Bolsa,' to request or invite it to take measures in order to secure the means of establishing direct communication or correspondence with your port, and the Government here proposes to invite the Argentine National Government to lend itself to the measure by allowing a special vessel to convey it to Buenos Ayres. So far, nothing has yet been decided, but it is fully expected that the idea will meet with success.

"Up to this moment nothing new from Entre Rios.

"Here the Government seems very busy in taking such measures as will ensure efficient confidence against the much-talked-about invasion of Col. Latorre from Brazil. The Oriental Rio Legation has not been retired; on the contrary, Sr. Sagastume, the Oriental Minister, is gone back to Rio. The principal chiefs of the Whites—Aparicio, Muñiz, Salvanach and others—have been called by the Government, and I understand they have come to some arrangement, which is kept quiet.

"Over and above this, nothing stirring here. Everybody's attention is taken up with the Argentine civil war, deploring the events that have lately taken place."

HOW I GOT MY PASPORT.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir

As some of you readers may wish to leave the city for the camp and may not know how to obtain the necessary passport, I beg to acquaint you how I obtained mine to-day. First I went to the Post Office where I was told I must go to the Government House in Calle Moreno. At the Government House they requested me to go to the Parque de Artilleria. On the way I met Mr Thomas Wilson, and according to Standard advice applied to him. Mr Wilson said that the Standard had interpreted too liberally his remarks of the previous day, that he could not get passes, but if I would go to the British Consulate, I would get what I wanted immediately. Hither I proceeded, only to be told they knew nothing about passports. I resumed my march to the Plaza Parque and was informed there that the proper place to apply to was the Comandancia in Calle Libertad. At this place I was told that no passports were ever granted there, and that I must go back to the Parque and apply to General Gelly y Obes. The General consigned me to an officer, of high rank. He said that he was busy, and requested me to call to-morrow. I waited a little longer, however, and the officer noticing my disappointment, despatched me: the process of obtaining the document having occupied exactly four hours.

I am &c,

VERY LATEST.

A Spanish shopkeeper of San Nicolas arrived in town yesterday at 3 o'clock from Belgrano, bringing the glorious news that Dr del Valle had assured him the bases of a Peace Treaty had been arranged, and the Peace Commissioners were all at breakfast with the President and his Ministers when he left Belgrano, nothing but minor details having to be settled.

STOP PRSS.

The Peace Commissioners returned to town yesterday afternoon; and, although we cannot ratify the foregoing statement of the San Nicolas merchant, we are fully authorized to say that the Peace Mission is progressing favorably and with the best prospect.

There was an immensely better feeling in the market to-day, and gold fell 50 cents on yesterday's price. Everyone spoke of peace, everyone believed in peace, and everyone acted upon the supposition of peace. Never was there feeling more unanimous, more sacred, more hallowed. Before the Bolsa passed a long procession of ladies dressed in mourning returning from the peace novena in the churches, and some of the best informed men in the market said that peace was almost certain, the hopes of the market are centred in Mr Edu. Madero and Dn Felix Frias.

Cedulas, gold, and National Bank Shares reflected in their prices the peace feeling; the market opened with Cedulas.

The Archimedes has obtained permit to load her cargo at San Fernando, which is really a great thing; we hear there are 150 lighters with cargo in San Fernando.

The Cosmos sails for Montevideo this evening, and an English man of war steam launch was in waiting to take off English passengers. We regret much that we did not know this yesterday in order to notify the public.

The Montevideo telegraph wire continues cut, and they say Colonel Lovalle will not allow it to be repaired.

We have received a letter from Mr. W. Leighton Jordan respecting the Mercantile Bank report which we are publishing; we hold his letter for our next.

At all the banks to-day there was great talk of the situation; the prevailing opinion amongst bankers is that peace will be arranged.

A meeting of the English Relief Committee was called for 4 o'clock to-day at the British Consulate.

The Bolsa was crowded to a late hour, and at 4 o'clock there was joy in every countenance. A Spanish dealer, of San Nicolas, had just arrived from Belgrano; he stated that Dr. Del Valle told him that the bases or chief points for the peace treaty had been concluded, and that they were now discussing details, and that everyone in Belgrano said peace was concluded. Like wildfire this news spread on 'Change, and everyone looked happy.

Another sale of Provincial Treasury Bonds was effected at afterhours, 150,000 at 96, being the same price paid in the morning. Nat. Treasury Bonds, one sale three days ago at 67. To-day buyers offered 72, no sellers.

At 4 o'clock gold ruled at 31.55, sellers for end of month 31.60, sellers cash being a drop of 60 cents on the cash price since yesterday.

Our friend from San Nicolas reported that when he left Belgrano, Moreno, Avellaneda, Frias, E Madero, Pellegrini, and Zorilla were all breakfasting together.

On next Wednesday afternoon a British gunboat will be despatched for Montevideo, by order of the commanding officer of the squadron; we trust there will be no further necessity to ask for free passages for families to escape from the town.

The Minho's mails came ashore this morning at half past 8 o'clock, and were delivered early. There has been a panic in the English and American money markets caused by the suspension of the Philadelphia Railway Company. The London papers of 24th give the following:—

"All the stock markets to-day were affected by the news that the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company had been obliged to suspend payment, and in the shares and bonds of that undertaking there was a panic fall which influenced more or less all American railroad securities, and, in a minor degree, every other department. The shock was the greater as it was unexpected, for the affairs of the Reading Company have never excited the same interest here, or led to as close an investigation as those of the Erie, Pennsylvania and others; while any distrust that may have survived the conclusion of the arrangement scheme after President Gowen's visit to this country had apparently been allayed by the obvious improvement in its circumstances in common with all American lines. There seems to be no doubt, indeed, that with a very moderate amount of care the catastrophe might have been averted, and that it was simply the result of a clever stroke by a confederacy of speculative wreckers who had no special hostility to this particular company, but only wanted to produce a panic in all securities for the purpose of buying back at a handsome profit. To cause such a panic, celerity and suddenness were essential, and the move undoubtedly has succeeded. The General Mortgage Bonds of the Reading fell 30 per cent to-day, and the other issues in proportion, the shares receding 16. Most American railroads suffered, although not, of course, to the same extent. It is needless to say, however, that whether such a fall in Readings is warranted or not by the circumstances—very probably it is not—the position of that line has been quite exceptional, and anything like general distrust is uncalled for. Of the substantial prosperity and soundness of the American railway system, there is no reason to entertain any doubt; and in fact, the great object of the stock operators on the other side in producing a semi-panic is, by frightening weak and timid holders, to buy in themselves at low prices, and then await the inevitable recovery. A similar result will doubtless be witnessed here. The decline will, after a little, attract buyers who have for some time held aloof from the markets, on the chance of some such opportunity as is now presented. This remark applies to English as well as American railways. The former were all lower to-day in 'sympathy' with American, there being really no more reason for their falling on that account than their rising, since their actual position both as to accrued gains and prospects is altogether unaffected by any temporary crisis in the affairs of a railroad on the other side of the Atlantic. Unless credit disasters should occur nearer home, or the value of money got suddenly enhanced, the depression seen to-day cannot be very prolonged.

"Canadian railways fell with American. Foreign Government Bonds were neglected, but on the whole lower, United States Funded Loans included; and Consols showed no change.

"The trustees of the Bolivian Loan, Messrs J H Lloyd and A J Lambert, have given notice that on Monday, May 31st, they will be prepared to receive the bonds of this loan "for the purpose of paying the holders thereof the proportion of 45 per cent as ordered by the House of Lords." It may be pointed out that the bonds—all, in fact, but £200,000 nominal or thereabouts—are the Bolivian Bondholders' Committee, who will, therefore, receive the 45 per cent, and hand over the amount due to each client, after deducting a moderate percentage on account of the costs and charges. The minority of bondholders who have not parted with their bonds in exchange for certificates are of course entitled to the full 45 per cent, and will thus profit by the Committee's labours, without having contributed a shilling towards its expenses.

"A meeting has been called of the creditors of Messrs James Harrison & Sons, of Limerick, a respectable and old-established firm in the corn trade. Their difficulties, however, are stated to be chiefly due to some extensive building operations. The liabilities are estimated at about £70,000, and the estate shows a dividend of about 7s 6d in the pound."

Brehmer's Patent Handmachine for Binding Papers etc.

Indispensable to all Commercial Houses, Banks, Consulates, Lawyers and all Professional men who require daily to bind or sew papers together.
The old method of binding papers with thread is always unsatisfactory, as the thread is apt to wear, or tear the paper; however, by the above Apparatus all that is avoided, as papers and even samples of dry goods to the thickness of nearly half an inch can be bound in the most neat, rapid and secure manner possible, and if necessary can easily be unbound.
The great advantage of the Brehmer Apparatus is that it is handy and easy to work and can be kept ready for use on any desk.
Each Machine is accompanied by full directions how to work it.

CONCENTRATED JEYES PERFECT PURIFIER TRADE MARK
Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.
National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.
Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.
Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.
The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.
I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.
Extracts from Testimonials
From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall. Wales—
"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.
Extracts from Medical Opinions.
The Right Hon. Earl Russell comm[unic]ated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.
From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.
Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.
See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.
CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

In connection with Carlow Lay College, the Preparatory School of St. Mary's, for Children from eight to twelve years of age, has been re-opened.
Rector—Rev. William P Bourke.
Matron and Professor of French and Music—Miss Finneran.
English Master—Mr P Harnett.
The School is strictly and purposely limited to children of such age, in order that they may be totally separated from the grown boys, and may have all the advantages of minute attention which their tender years require.
The children at St. Mary's are under the special care of the matron, and the rector takes charge of their religious instruction.
TERMS:
Pension, including all extras, 35 guineas per annum.
Pension, exclusive of extras, £30.
